REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The instant application discloses an equalizer arrangement for generating an output signal by equalizing an input signal. Prior art references (Wong et al., US Patent 5,841,810) show similar methods but fail to teach: "where the gain of a certain of the second equalizer sections is equal to the negative sum of the gains of the first equalizer sections that are immediately adjacent to the first equalizer section that is uniquely associated with the certain of the second equalizer sections, where the gains are taken at the center frequency of the first equalizer section that is uniquely associated with the certain of the second equalizer sections", as in claim 2; "wherein the gain of the certain of the second equalizer sections is equal to the negative sum of the gains of the first equalizer sections that are adjacent to the first equalizer section that is uniquely associated with the certain of the second equalizer sections, wherein the gains are taken at the center frequency of the first equalizer section that is uniquely associated with the certain of the second equalizer sections", as in claim 3; "the second correcting equalizer section includes a gain value that is indicative of the negative sum of the gains associated with the first and third equalizer sections at the center frequency of the second equalizer section", as in claim 7.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
